Who: The Claws of the Eagle Battalion

What: The NEHS Claws of the Eagle Battalion Awards Program

When: April 10, 2018

Where: Northeast High school

Why: To recognize the outstanding performance of our best cadets and award them for their accomplishments.

Outcomes: A strong sense of esprit de corps and a more awarded and recognizable battalion

Each year, the Claws of the Eagle Battalion hosts the battalion awards program to recognize all the hard work of our cadets. The new staff and new Battalion commander and Command Sergeant Major are announced. This year we recognized Cadet Donavan Powers as the new Battalion commander, Cadet Mason Hill as the new Executive officer, and Cadet Kevin Reardon as the new Command Sergeant Major. These cadets fly high and were awarded in doing so.
