

NORTHEAST HIGH SCHOOL

JROTC PROGRAM

CLARKSVILLE-MONTGOMERY COUNTY SCHOOL SYSTEM
CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE

WHO: THE CLAWS OF THE EAGLE BATTALION

WHAT: VETERANS DAY PARADE

WHEN: NOVEMBER 10, 2018

WHERE: NORTHEAST HIGH SCHOOL

WHY: TO REPRESENT THE CLAWS OF THE EAGLE BATTALION IN THE PARADE AND HONOR OUR VETERANS

OUTCOMES: WE HAVE SHOWN OUR APPRECIATION FOR VETERANS AND THEIR SERVICE AND VETERANS FEEL HONORED

November 10th the entire JROTC Claws of the Eagle Battalion marched in a two mile long veterans day parade. The JROTC color guard lead the formation with the colors and the Battalion Commander and staff stood behind them, with the rest of the battalion in line with them. Throughout the entirety of the two mile long parade, Command Sergeant Major Reardon, Sergeant First Class Ledoux, and First Lieutenant Zamora were calling cadence for the entire formation. After they finished marching the parade they went back to the school knowing that they honored the veterans that served us.