

Rossview High School

JROTC Program

Clarksville-Montgomery County School System
Clarksville, Tennessee

Who: RHS JROTC “Hawk” Battalion

What: Salvation Army food and hygiene donation drive

When: Nov 2018 - Jan 2019

Where: Rossview High school

Why: To help cadets develop their leadership and planning skills and allow them to see the benefit of improving the quality of life of others.

Outcomes: Cadets applied their classroom learning to a real-world situation and need.

The Rossview High School “Hawks” Battalion learned the value of assisting others through a community service project. Through their efforts 250 pounds of hygiene and food items were collected to assist the Salvation Army in its community assistance mission
