

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Newly appointed Regimental staff for West Creek High School

What: Official promotion ceremony

When: Tuesday 3 September 2019

Where: West Creek High School

Why: To recognize past performance and to future potential.

Outcomes: Younger cadets get to witness the results of hard work and are motivated for the future in JROTC.

U.S. ARMY

The ceremony was conducted in front of fellow cadets and family to display the hard work each cadet has demonstrated. It also showed how a formal promotion ceremony is conducted and publically acknowledged the establishment of the regimental command and staff.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Cadets on the Drill, Marksmanship, and Raider teams

What: Team Practices

When: After School

Where: West Creek High School

Why: To gain proficiency for upcoming competition and to build esprit de corps

Outcomes: JROTC cadets are ready for future competitions

Co-curricular activities are a key component of the JROTC experience. Cadets participating in these co-curricular activities gain valuable leadership and team experiences that help develop life skills to fuel future career success.

