

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: RHS JROTC Cadets

WHAT: Golden Corral Veterans Day Recognition Dinner

WHEN: 11 November 2019

WHERE: Golden Corral
2811 Wilma Rudolph Blvd
Clarksville, TN

WHY: To help Golden Corral stay clean and organized while they had their Veterans recognition event.

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Character, Personal Social Responsibility, Teamwork, and Selfless Service to Community and others during this event.

SUMMARY: The Rossview JROTC Cadets went to Golden corral on Monday November 11th, 2019. They got to eat a small meal and enjoy each others company before they were divided into groups and were assigned specific jobs. Some of the jobs involved dishes, busing plates, running the salad bar and welcoming/guiding people to their tables. The Rossview JROTC Color Guard also presented the National and State Colors outside as part of the events kick-off. Because of the RHS Battalions participation, Golden Corral was able to feed 1200 Veterans and their Families in a 5-hour period.

