

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

LEFT - Who: Clarksville High School JROTC program's use of technology to ensure operations continue
What: Battalion bi-weekly Command and Staff meeting
When: Friday, October 9th
Where: Clarksville High School and multiple virtual / remote locations
Why: Despite the obstacles that continue to face the battalion due to COVID-19 impacts, the Wildcat leadership maintain communication lines with the command and staff virtually using the support of technology.

RIGHT - Who: The Saber and Color Guard teams from Clarksville High School supported the school's Homecoming festivities.
What: Homecoming football game (Right)
When: Friday, October 2
Where: Clarksville High School
Why: Clarksville High School's JROTC helped to support Homecoming royalty at the Homecoming football game.

Outcome: The Clarksville High School JROTC program developed back up plans to accommodate cadets who either attend school virtually or were supporting from a remote location; and Homecoming Royalty was presented by the Clarksville High School's JROTC Sabre Guard before the Homecoming game on October 2

