WHAT: Clarksville-Montgomery County Veterans Day Parade

WHEN: November 7th, 2020

WHERE: Downtown Clarksville, TN

WHY: To honor the brave men and women that have served for the United States Of America.

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Leadership, Character, Personal Social Responsibility, Teamwork, Selfless Service to Community and Others, and American Heritage and History during this event.

SUMMARY:

RHS JROTC Cadets participated in this annual parade to recognize and honor those Americans that have risen to the challenge and served this Great Nation. For this COVID constrained event RHS provided two color guard teams to participate in the parade. One team represented Rossview High School and the other assisted the Elester Garner Chapter of the Triple Nickels 555th Parachute Infantry Association in their units participation in the parade. The RHS Color Guard was awarded 3rd Place in the Parades JROTC/Honor Guard Category.
