

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: RHS JROTC Cadets - Robotics team

WHAT: White House Robotics Competition

WHEN: March 27, 2021

WHERE: White House High School

WHY: To demonstrate the Teams robotics construction and manipulation abilities while participating in a friendly competition made up of 13 different Robotics Teams.

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Character, Teamwork and Student Achievement during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at: <https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

SUMMARY: The Rossview JROTC “Robohawks” Robotics Team participated in the White House High School JROTC Spring VEX Tournament. This was the programs second competition since it began a Robotics Team and team one reached the semi finals in the tournament and finished with an overall .500 win percentage as a program. The team also earned the Judges Trophy for their for distinguishing themselves during the competition.

