

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Rossview JROTC LET IV Cadets

WHAT: SY 2020-2021 Community Emergency Response Team Course Graduation

WHEN: 14 May 2021

WHERE: Rossview High School

WHY: To present the Course Certificates that LET IV Cadets earned for completing the Community Emergency Response Team Course .

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Student Achievement, Character and Personal Social Responsibility during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at: <https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

SUMMARY: As part of a partnership between Austin Peay State University, the Clarksville-Montgomery Emergency Management Office and CMCSS, Nine RHS LET IV Cadets received their Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Course certificates after completing all the training requirements to become Community Emergency Response Team members. In addition to the course requirements, the cadets also completed six additional Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) courses: IS-100, IS -120, IS-200, IS-315, IS-317 and IS-394 to further enhance their Emergency Management knowledge and response skills.

