

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Pictured left to right: Col (Ret) Lightner, CSM (Ret) Louk.

WHAT: Col (Ret) Lightner is presenting CSM (Ret) Louk an award for his superb guidance in leading both of his JLAB teams to excellence at the National Competition in D.C.

WHEN: August 3rd 2021

WHERE: DAI offsite

WHY: To recognize both CSM Louk's excellent guidance of the Leadership and Academic Teams that finished 11th and 16th in the Nation respectively.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Academic Team (top) and the Leadership Team (bottom).

WHAT: Northwest JLAB teams competed at the Nationals. Academic team finished 16th and the Leadership team finished 11th in the Nation.

WHEN: 19th through the 28th of July

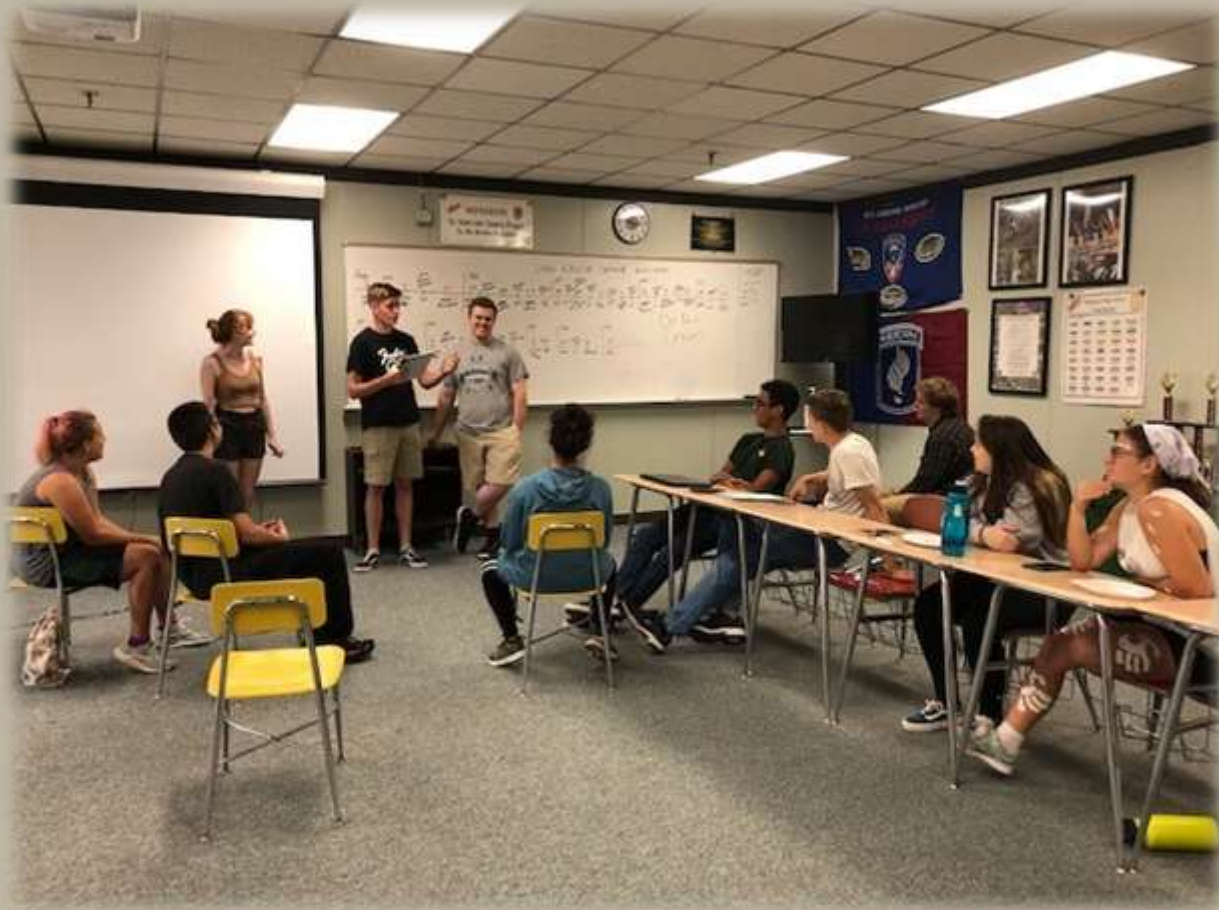

WHERE: Washington D.C.

WHY: Cadets demonstrated their academic and leadership abilities while competing at the National Level.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Northwest JROTC Staff
WHAT: JROTC Staff developed a long range calendar to plan out JROTC events for the upcoming year
WHEN: July 28th
WHERE: Northwest Highschool
WHY: The long range calendar will make the Viking Battalion events run efficiently and smoothly.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Northwest JROTC Cadets
WHAT: JROTC Cadets recruited over 30 incoming freshmen to join the Viking Battalion for SY 21-22.
WHEN: August 6th
WHERE: Northwest Highschool
WHY: To recruit and build future leaders, and to build a large foundation of cadets for the future of the Viking Battalion.

