

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Montgomery Central Raider Team

WHAT: APSU Raider Competition

WHEN: October 23, 2021

WHERE: Austin Peay State University

WHY: To challenge cadets to build team relationships and leadership skills

OUTCOMES: The team did not place but they learned valuable lessons that they will take and improve on

Montgomery Central Raider team competed in a Raider competition at Austin Peay on October 23. They competed in order to challenge cadets and build team relationships, leadership skills, and physical fitness. The team did not place but learned valuable lessons that they will continue to improve on.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Montgomery Central Staff (BC, CSM, XO, S3, HHC, S5)

WHAT: Staff Ride

WHEN: October 22, 2021

WHERE: Stones River National Battlefield Murfreesboro, TN

WHY: To learn and teach others what it was like to be in the civil war.

OUTCOMES: The staff observed and participated in presenting information about certain stops on the trail.

The Montgomery Central Top 5 staff members participated in the staff ride, hosted by West Creek, on October 22. The staff members traveled to Stones River National Battlefield in Murfreesboro, TN. They researched then presented to other schools' staff members what it was like to live and fight in that time period and battle.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

The Montgomery Central Color Guard had the opportunity to present the colors. This was held at the APSU vs TSU football game on October 2nd. The team used their leadership skills to participate in this community activity.

WHO: Montgomery Central Color Guard

WHAT: Presenting of Colors

WHEN: October 2, 2021

WHERE: APSU Football stadium

WHY: To give the color guard an opportunity to present colors at a college football game

OUTCOMES: The team presented leadership skills and participated in community activities

