

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Select RHS JROTC Cadets

WHAT: CMCSS JROTC History Field Trip

WHEN: 22 October 2021

WHERE: Stones River National Battlefield

WHY: To join the other six CMCSS JROTC programs in a Historical Learning Adventure using the Staff Ride Format.

OUTCOMES: The Cadets Applied the JROTC Values of Teamwork, Leadership, Student Achievement and American Heritage and History during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at: <https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

SUMMARY: Six RHS Cadets, led by c/CPT Kyle Gruver, traveled with cadets from all seven CMCSS JROTC Programs to Murfreesboro Tennessee to participate in an educational tour of the battlefield. The RHS Team of Kyle Gruver, Michelle Jolin, Brooke Conrad, Gabriel Jolin, Garrison DePriest and Stephanie Shuman briefed the formation at the National Cemetery instructing the group on casualty rates, notable internments, after affects of the battle and long-term ramifications for both armies as they would later meet again at the Battle of Tullahoma 6-months later.

