

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Selected RHS JROTC Cadets

WHAT: DAI Overview Briefing

WHEN: 18 November 2021

WHERE: Rossvie High School, Clarksville, TN

WHY: To assist the Director of Army Instruction in his presentation to the Leadership CMCSS Members.

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Selfless Service to Community and Others, Leadership, Character, and Teamwork during this event.

*To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at:
<https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>*

SUMMARY: On the 18th of November 2021, members of the Leadership CMCSS Group came to Rossvie High School to receive presentations from the Fine Arts Department, the Academy of Media Arts and the CMCSS JROTC Director of Army Instruction Office. Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Joan-Marie Acosta-Torres, accompanied by Cadet Captain Olivia Miller, Cadet First Sergeant Landon Hankemeier and Cadet Sergeant Garrison DePriest assisted the DAI in his presentation by providing firsthand Cadet opinions on the CMCSS JROTC Program and fielding questions during the presentations questions and answers segment.

