

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET

Who: MCHS Indian Battalion Drill

What: Competed in The JROTC National Drill Competition

When: April 15th, 2022

Where: Daytona Beach, Florida

Why: To compete against other drill teams across the US

Outcomes:

Unarmed overall 6th place
Unarmed inspection 9th place
Unarmed regulation 4th place
Unarmed Commander's trophy 9th place
Unarmed Color guard 7th place
Unarmed Exhibition 6th place

The MCHS Indian Battalion drill team competed in the JROTC National Drill competition. They won: Unarmed overall 6th place
Unarmed inspection 9th place, Unarmed regulation 4th place, Unarmed Commander's trophy 9th place, Unarmed Color guard 7th place, and Unarmed Exhibition 6th place. The competition was held in Daytona, Florida on April 15th .

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET

Who: Selected cadets

What: Competed in The JROTC National Fitness Competition

When: April 15th, 2022

Where: Daytona Beach, Florida

Why: To compete against other fitness teams across the US

Outcomes: 1st Place Male Ultimate Fittest Cadet-Caleb Hattendorf

Overall - 4th place

Female Overall - 4th place

Overall (male)- 4th place

Team 1 (female) broad jump- 3rd place

Team 2 (female) broad jump- 1st place

Broad jump (male)- 3rd place

Selected Cadets of the Inian Battalion competed in the National Fitness Competition. This was at Daytona Beach, Florida on April 15th. The teams traveled to Daytona in order to compete against other branches of service in fitness.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET

Cadets from Montgomery Central High School hosted its annual Award Ceremony and Change of Command. Cadets of the Indian Battalion were presented with awards for their outstanding participation in the JROTC program. The ceremony introduced the new chain of command for the 22-23 school year.

Who: MCHS Indian Battalion

What: SY 2021-2022 Award ceremony and Change of Command.

When: April 28th, 2022

Where: MCHS Gymnasium

Why: To award and celebrate outstanding cadets. Also to set a new chain of command in place.

Outcomes: Cadets were recognized for their accomplishments of the 21-22 school year and applauded their peers. Change of command ceremony to present the new battalion leadership.

