

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Selected Cadet

WHAT: S.T.E.M. Field Trip

WHEN: 5 May 2022

WHERE: U.S. Space and Rocket Center, Huntsville, Alabama

WHY: To expose cadets to STEM engagement and opportunities available to JROTC cadets

OUTCOMES: Cadet applied the values of Character, Student Achievement, American Heritage and History, Teamwork and Leadership during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at: <https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

SUMMARY: On May 5th, 2022, Cadets from Rossview High School joined Cadets from across CMCSS as they traveled to One Tranquility Base, the U.S. Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama. Cadets participated in guided tours of the facility and participated in hands-on learning opportunities and S.T.E.M. labs led by NASA scientists and U.S. Space Center employees. The group, led by Cadet Captain Kyle Gruver, was c/CPT Brooklynn Castleberry, c/CPT Gabriel Jolin, c/1SG Layla Starmack, c/ PFC Stephanie Shuman and c/PFC Brian Stetz

