

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Northwest High School JROTC Cadets & Veteran's Hunting and Fishing Network (VHFN)

WHAT: Cadet provided support to assist the VHFN Memorial Day Fishing Tournament and family event.

WHEN: 8:00-1600, 28 May 2022

WHERE: Liberty Park Pond

WHY: To support and assist the Veteran's Hunting and Fishing Network provide services for Active Duty, Veterans, and Gold Star Families. Cadets built a relationship with local veterans and set the ground work for future events.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Northwest High School JROTC Cadets, and Compass Rose Event Staff

WHAT: Supporting Compass Rose Events as they put on a “Family Movie Night” for Nissan employees and families.

WHEN: Saturday, June 4, 2022

WHERE: Nissan Rec. Grounds, 983 Nissan Dr. Smyrna, TN 37388

WHY: This event served as the first fundraising even for next year and allowed cadets to support the local community, while developing leadership skills and team bonding as they move towards the 2022-2023 School year.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Selected NWS JROTC Cadets along with all other CMSS Schools

WHAT: CMSS JCLC 2022

WHEN: 7-11 June 2022

WHERE: Wendell Ford Training Facility, Greenville KY.

WHY: To provide select cadets a wide range of leadership & life skills, building opportunities, while fostering team work, mutual respect, and Esprit de corps in a military setting.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Northwest High School JROTC's JLAB Leadership Team.

WHAT: 2022 JROTC Leadership and Academic Bowl National Championship

WHEN: 19-23 Jun 2022

WHERE: Catholic University of America, Washington DC

WHY: The JROTC JLAB is a nationally recognized competition exclusively for JROTC students. By participating, cadets learn the values of citizenship, academic competition, and college opportunity. The competition creates tremendous opportunities for cadets by allowing them to demonstrate leadership and academic abilities, while visiting the Nation's Capital.

