UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

MCHS JROTC participated in the Meet the Indians event at Montgomery Central High School. Each member had the opportunity to hear their name called as part of the team and the team was recognized for last years accomplishments, this boosted morale and excitement for the team tremendously. The Drill Camp helped upcoming cadets and other members of the Drill Team sharpen their skill and become better prepared for this year.

GO CENTRAL!

WHO: MCHS JROTC Drill and Raider

Teams and Color Guard

WHAT: Meet the Indians Event, First Day of School, Home Football Game,

Practices and Drill Camp.

WHERE: MCHS, Cunningham TN WHY: Meet the Indians allowed members of the JROTC Drill and Raider Teams to become pumped up and excited about the new school year. The camps and practices also allowed these teams to prepare for the upcoming season.

OUTCOME: The month of August was spent preparing and training hard for all upcoming competitions and getting excited for everything that will come after this month.

