

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood High School Cobra Battalion

WHAT: Team Support, Fundraising

WHEN: October 7th, 2023

OUTCOMES:

The Cobra Battalion continues to establish a foundation of success.

On October 7th, Cadets and family members from the Cobra Battalion participated in a Compass Rose event to raise funds for the Battalion.

The students spent the day supervising bounce houses, carnival booths, food service and site cleanup.

Their hard work and dedication raised over $2,000.00 to support future activities such as a military ball, Raider and Drill competitions.

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood High School Cobra Battalion

WHAT: History, Learning

WHEN: October 20th, 2023

OUTCOMES:

The Cobra Battalion continues to learn and grow.

On October 20th, Cadets from the Cobra Battalion participated in tour of the Chickamauga Battlefield with JROTC Cadets from across CMCSS.

The Cobra Cadets were responsible for researching Gen Braxton Bragg and his role in the battle. During the tour, they provided highlights of their research with other Cadets to provide greater insight on the key players and events that played a role in the outcome of the battle.

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood High School Cobra Battalion

WHAT: Physical Fitness, Team Building

WHEN: October 21st, 2023

OUTCOMES:

The Cadets of the Cobra Battalion continue to develop physical fitness, unit cohesion and the spirit of competition.

On October 21st, nine Cadets from the Cobra Battalion stepped forward to compete in a grueling physical fitness competition at Rossvie High School.

The Cadets participated in a variety of events to include the Army Physical Fitness Test, pull ups, a tire flip relay, tug of war, and a mental challenge among many others.

The Cadets had an enjoyable time competing in an event that pushed both their physical and mental boundaries providing increased confidence and physical stamina.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood High School Cobra Battalion

WHAT: Accomplishment, Learning, Recognition, Achievement

WHEN: October 24th, 2023

OUTCOMES:

On Oct 24th, the Cobra Battalion hosted a visit by COL Lightner and CSM Perry to recognize Cadet achievement by congratulating Cadet JadaBella Wyche as the winner for Kiwanis Essay Contest.

The Cadets recently participated in the annual Clarksville Kiwanis Essay Contest. Cadets had to interview a Veteran and gain insight on how that Veteran's service could help them become better citizens. Of the 95 entries from across the battalion, Cadet Wyche was selected as the winner. Not only was her essay written in clear professional manner, she was able to explain how lessons learned from her Veteran can be actively applied to her own life to make her a better citizen and leader in the community.

For her hard work and effort, Cadet Wyche was presented with a certificate and Director's Arc of Excellence by COL Lightner.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood High School Cobra Battalion

WHAT: Physical Fitness, Team Building, Raiders, Confidence

WHEN: October 28st, 2023

OUTCOMES:

The Cadets of the Cobra Battalion continue to develop physical fitness, unit cohesion and the spirit of competition.

On October 28th , ten Cadets from the Cobra Battalion stepped forward to compete in a demanding Raider Competition at Clarksville High.

The Cadets participated in a variety of events to include a mile long cross country litter race, heavy equipment relay, an obstacle course, burpee contest and a demanding rock carry race.

While this was not the first Raider Competition that the Cobras participated in, it was the first completion with a Kirkwood pure team. Recent growth and interest in the Raider Team allowed the Cadets to compete without dependence on other schools to fill vacancies.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood High School Cobra Battalion

WHAT: Drill Team, Unit Cohesion, Discipline, Confidence.

WHEN: October 28st, 2023

OUTCOMES:

The Cadets of the Cobra Battalion continue to develop confidence and discipline through drill competitions.

On October 28th, the Cobra Drill Team participated in a competition at Clarksville High.

The Cadets competed in the unarmed drill category. While the team did not place, Cadet Amaya Washington was recognized as the Unarmed Individual Drill Regulation winner.

