

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: RHS JROTC Cadets

WHAT: CMCSS JROTC History Field Trip

WHEN: 20 October 2023

WHERE: Chickamauga National Battlefield, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia

WHY: To emphasize the importance of history and what it can teach us.

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Teamwork, Leadership, Character, and American Heritage and History during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at:

<https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

SUMMARY: Five Rossview High School Cadets, led by c/CPT Erin Starmack, traveled with cadets from all eight CMCSS JROTC Programs to Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia to participate in an educational tour of the Chickamauga National Battlefield. The RHS Team of c/CPT Erin Starmack, c/CPL Ilana Combs, c/CPL Bryliegh Schmidt, c/CPL Lydia Dahlen, and c/CPL Ishan Chakabarti, briefed the assembled cadets at the Rock of Chickamauga Monument. They instructed the group on the Union Stand and the Rock of Chickamauga. They discussed General Thomas' courageous stand on the Union left on day three of the battle, and how his actions led to him being known as the "Rock of Chickamauga".

U.S. ARMY

