SUMMARY: Cadet Captain Yuna Choi was the selected as the RHS Kiwanis Essay winner, and she received his awards from COL (R) Lightner in a small ceremony at Rossview High School. She did her essay about the service of Army Sergeant Earnest Jones, an Army Air Corps Radio Operator, who was part of the D-Day Invasion in WWII. She emphasized Sergeant Jones’s description of teamwork and togetherness throughout her essay. SGT Jones stated this in regards to his unit, “We were united. Each individual was willing to do the job that he was assigned. It was a very impressive time. We acted like we knew exactly what we were supposed to do and we did it.”
