

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: KHS JROTC

WHAT: Kenwood National JROTC Red River Brigade, Essay representative (C/MAJ Ian Smith is presented with a certificate of

WHEN: February 8, 2024

WHERE: Kenwood High School Senior Army Instructor Classroom

WHY: The purpose of the National Essay is an annual competition designed to give Cadets an opportunity to assimilate lessons learned from interviewing and speaking with local service member in their community. Cadets are able to write essays to reflect what they received from speaking with Service men and women

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: KHS JROTC

WHAT: KHS Battalion Social, Etiquette and Preparation for the military ball classes

WHEN: February 13-14, 2024

WHERE: Kenwood High School JROTC SAI Classroom

WHY: Cadets who practice good manners and understand the rules of etiquette for social events will represent their organization with pride. Knowing how to behave properly, in familiar as well as in strange situations, builds self-confidence. KHS JROTC cadets will apply these social skill at the Knight Battalion Military Ball in March

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: KHS JROTC Drill and Color guard Teams

WHAT: Montgomery Central Drill Competition

WHEN: February 24, 2024

WHERE: Montgomery Central High School

WHY: Teams across the district and region participate in MCHS annual drill competition. This competition stress the important of team work and leadership skills. Cadets were inspected on basic knowledge, drill commands, and the proper wearing of the uniform

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: KHS JROTC Drill and Color guard Teams

WHAT: Montgomery Central Drill Competition

WHEN: February 24, 2024

WHERE: Montgomery Central High School

WHY: The Knights Battalion place 3rd over all during the MCHS. We are proud to be Knights, “We coming”, with an ELITE Mindset; Experience, Leadership, Ignites, Teamwork and Excellence.

“Black Knights”

