

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood Cobra JROTC Program

WHAT: Military Ball

WHEN: Feb 10, 2024

The Kirkwood High JROTC Cadets work hard at school and in the community. On February 10th, the Cadets relaxed and had fun at this event which they planned and executed. Highlights from our inaugural ball include a grog bowl ceremony, Senior Cadet recognition and remarks by our guest speaker from the Women Veterans of America. Following the meal, the Cadets enjoyed dancing and additional socializing.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC Color Guard

WHAT: Indian Color Guard and Drill Challenge

WHEN: 24 Feb

The Cobra Battalion Drill and Color Guard Team ended the competition season on a high note. During the Indian Color Guard and Drill Challenge at Montgomery Central High School, the team scored 3rd place in Unarmed Platoon Inspection. CDT Eunique Turner placed 9th in Unarmed Knockout and CDT Garlick placed 3rd in Armed Knockout. While the season is over, the Cadets still continue to practice and refine their skills for school and community support.

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Cobra Crossover

WHEN: 22 Feb

Cadets from the Kirkwood JROTC Program participated in Cobra Crossover on 21 and 22 Feb. This event is designed to provide the incoming class from Kirkwood Middle School and their families an opportunity to learn about Kirkwood High and the programs it offers. During this event, students served as tour guides for the 8th graders and set up a JROTC booth to provide program information and highlights to visiting students and their families.

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Physical Fitness

WHEN: Every Week

Starting in February, Cadets started lifting weights during Friday physical training. Cadets received lessons on gym etiquette, safety and lifting techniques from their instructors. Cadets rotate through the gym in groups to participate in a variety of exercises such as bench press, dead lift, and curls to not only prepare for Cadet Challenge, but to encourage healthy habits that will benefit them in life.

