

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Promotions

WHEN: March 2024

It was a month of advancement for many Cadets within the Cobra Battalion. During March, the Cobra Battalion leaders hosted a series of promotion exams for our junior ranking Cadets and promotion boards for our leaders to determine next years Command Staff Team. The hard work and dedication resulted in four Cadets becoming eligible for promotion. Results of the leadership promotion boards will be released to the battalion during our awards ceremony on 19 April.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: JPA SAV Preparation

WHEN: March

The Cobra Battalion has been focused on preparing for our first JPA SAV Inspection. Cadets have been busy supporting supply inventory, practicing drill and color guard sequences and practicing briefs for the Service Learning Project and Continuous Improvement Project. This inspection will allow Cadets to enhance leadership skills by providing updates the DAI while gaining insight on how to improve procedures within the program.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: APSU Cadet for a Day

WHEN: 27 March 24

On March 27th, Cadets from the Cobra Battalion spent the morning at APSU for the Cadet For a Day event. During this event, our Cadets conducted physical fitness training and team building activities with APSU ROTC Cadets. Our Cadets learned about the ROTC program, the benefits it offers and conducted tours of the APSU Campus.

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Cobra Challenge Track Meet

WHEN: 30 March 24

Our Kirkwood Cadets spent the day supporting the first ever Cobra Challenge Track and Field Meet. Cadets showed support to the school and our student athletes by selling concessions, moving hurdles, escorting visiting athletes and event check in. Our Cadets are continuously motivated to provide ongoing support to the school, community and each other.

U.S. ARMY