

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Stephanie Shuman

WHAT: Commonwealth Honors Academy

WHEN: 8-29 June 2024

WHERE: Murray State University, Murray, KY

WHY: To take advantage of the opportunity to make friends with intelligent, enthusiastic, and energetic students from different areas and with different backgrounds.

OUTCOMES: Cadet applied the values of Teamwork, Leadership, Character, and Personal Social Responsibility during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at:

<https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

Summary: From 8 to 29 June 2024, c/LTC Stephanie Shuman participated in the Commonwealth Honors Academy at Murray State University. The Commonwealth Honors Academy is a three-week academic enrichment experience is held on Murray State University's main campus in Murray, KY. Participants live on campus while taking college-level honors classes and participating in fun activities and seminars to help them grow personally and socially. Based on her qualifications and performance, c/LTC Shuman was accepted to Murray State University and awarded a 22,000.00 Commonwealth Scholarship.

