

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Stephanie Shuman

WHAT: Volunteer Girls State

WHEN: 26 May - 1 June 2024

WHERE: Lipscomb University, Nashville, Tennessee

WHY: Girls State is practical application of Americanism and good citizenship. The entire program is a non-partisan, non-political, non-sectarian attempt to teach and inculcate in the young women of America a love of God and country.

OUTCOMES: Cadet applied the values of Teamwork, Leadership, Character, and Personal Social Responsibility during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at: <https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

Summary: From 26 May to 1 June 2024, c/LTC Stephanie Shuman participated in the 78th Session of Volunteers Girls State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, which was held on the campus of Lipscomb University. The Girls State Program empowers Tennessee's promising young women to become and remain civically engaged leaders through experiential learning and relevant, inspiring growth opportunities.

