

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Kenwood High School JROTC Program

What: Community Engagement Project

When: September 6, 2024

Where: Bridgestone Metalpha USA Inc. Clarksville, TN

Why: Service to Community is an important part of our Knight's Battalion, this month our cadets and instructors, along with the local community set to Bridgestone Metalpha USA Inc. and provide the employees and their families with a memorable and relaxing experience that leaves them with not just toys or prizes in their hand, but a smile on their face.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Kenwood High School JROTC Program

What: Community Engagement Project

When: September 7, 2024

Where: Bridgestone Metalpha USA Inc. Clarksville, TN

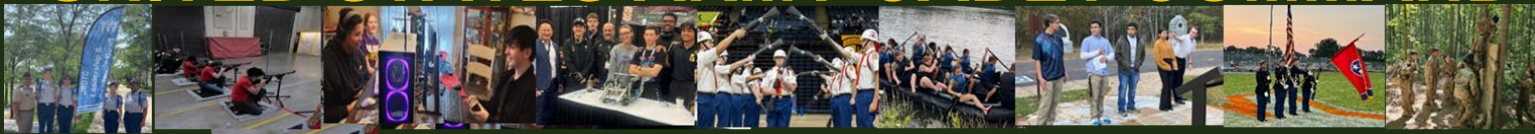

Why: Service to Community is an important part of our Knight's Battalion, this month our cadets and instructors, along with the local community set to Bridgestone Metalpha USA Inc. and provide the employees and their families with a memorable and relaxing experience that leaves them with not just toys or prizes in their hand, but a smile on their face.

Elite Mindset =Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: KHS JROTC Battalion

What: RRB Fitness Challenge

When: September 17, 2024

Where: Kenwood High School

Why: To assess the physical condition of JROTC cadets through various exercises such as the push-ups, sit-ups, and mile run. Additionally, this assessment will be used to make PT plans to fit according to cadets physical fitness.

U.S. ARMY

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork
and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

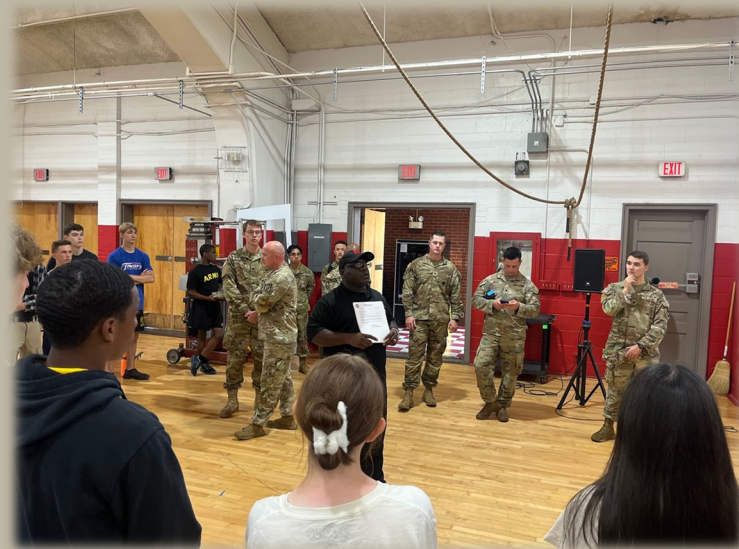

Who: JROTC Juniors and Seniors

What: Cadet For a Day

When: September 18, 2024

Where: APSU Memorial Health Building

Why: APSU invited Senior and Junior JROTC cadets to experience the life of an ROTC college student using various activities like PT, Breakfast, and Team-building exercises to keep us engaged throughout our time there.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: KHS JROTC Robotics Team

What: Tennessee Valley Association Conference

When: September 19, 2024

Where: Johnsonville, TN

Why: Our Robotics Team went to a convention down in Johnsonville to talk to the community about their team, robots, and their objectives. During their time there, they not only displayed a great set of their equipment and information but also partnered with the Tennessee Valley Association who not only donated a small sum of money but agreed to help pay for kits and robot parts.

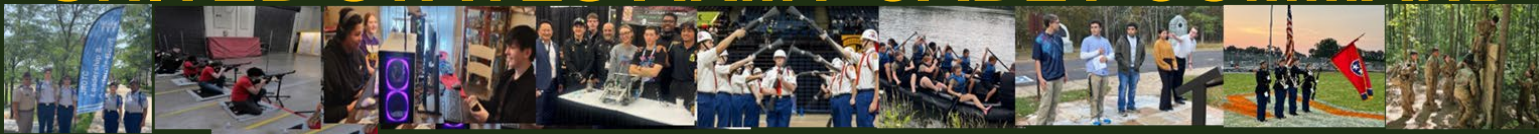

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: KHS JROTC Raider Team

What: Raider Team Competition

When: September 21, 2024

Where: Warren County High School

Why: Our Raider Team set to compete against 33 total teams, 5 of which competed and won their spot in nationals. After a grueling day of physical activity, our Raiders placed 2nd honors out of 33 teams, beating 4 out of 5 of the national teams.

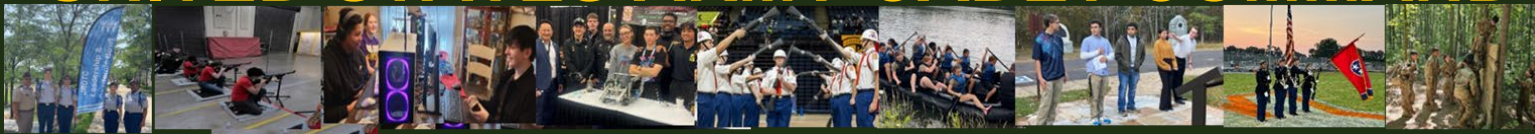

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Local Community and JROTC Program(s)

What: Mt. Olive Cemetery Cleanup

When: September 22, 2024

Where: Mt. Olive National Cemetery

Why: Service to Community is an important part of our Knight's Battalion, this month our cadets and instructors, along with the local community, went to Mt. Olive National Cemetery in order to clean and help preserve an important part of our History. This Cemetery is said to be home to over 1000 troops spanning from the U.S. Civil War to WW2.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: KHS and CHS JROTC Color Guard(s)

What: Color Guard Drill Camp

When: September 25, 2024

Where: Kenwood High School

Why: To improve and retrain JROTC Color Guard(s) to the right standards following Army Training Circular 3-21.5. With the help of MSG Luckey, he provided his own experience and knowledge to fix the problems in the Color Guard sequence and movements such as Sling Arms, Colors Reverse March, and Uncase the Colors.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: KHS JROTC Battalion

What: Battalion Formation

When: September 26, 2024

Where: KHS Auditorium

Why: 1st Battalion Formation, our staff and instructors briefed the JROTC Battalion on the standards and regulations, as well as the many things that were expected of them. Afterwards, the physical fitness team was recognized by Col. Lightner for placing 1st in the Red River Brigade Postal Fitness Challenge.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: KHS JROTC Juniors and Seniors

What: UM STEM Trip JROTC

When: September 27, 2024

Where: University of Memphis

Why: To provide our JROTC Juniors and Seniors with a learning experience at the University of Memphis and gain familiarity with the university grounds. The cadets were also given a chance to speak and learn about their ROTC program and Scholarship opportunities like the Community Service Scholarship with LTC Ferguson, MSG. Jackson, Mr. Brown, and Mrs. Benymon.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Kenwood Community and JROTC Program

What: LET 1 Drill Competition

When: September 28, 2024

Where: Clarksville High School

Why: 1st Drill Competition, Our LET 1s were nervous, but excited to participate and hopefully place amongst the other schools. Although they did not win a spot for their Color Guard performance, they did however place 3rd for their LET 1 Squad commanded by cadet Mosley.

Elite Mindset = Experience and Leadership Ignites Teamwork and Excellence

U.S. ARMY