

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Kirkwood JROTC Command and Staff Teambuilding

WHEN: 20 Sep 2024

The Cobra Battalion Command and Staff Team conducting a team building to develop teamwork skills through problem solving. The team also took time to get to know each other before conducting a review of the yearly training schedule.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Mount Olive Cemetery

WHEN: 22 Sep 2024

The Cobra Battalion Cadets participated in the upkeep of the Historic Mount Olive Cemetery. Cobra Cadets had the opportunity to work with Cadets from across CMCSS while providing a service to the Clarksville Community. Cadets spent the afternoon clearing trails and learning about the historic importance of Mount Olive Cemetery.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Wildcat Drill and Color Guard Competition

WHEN: 28 Sep 24

LET I Cadets from the Cobra Battalion participated in the Clarksville High Drill and Color Guard Competition on 28 Sep. Our new Cadets have been meeting daily after school to hone their skills and develop the teamwork and discipline needed to properly represent the battalion at competitions and school and community events.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Raider Team

WHEN: September 2024

Despite the recent competition cancellations due to weather, The Cobra Raider Team continues to meet after school each day to improve their physical fitness and leadership skills. Raider Leaders lead the team in variety of exercises and challenges to improve mental stamina and increase muscular strength and endurance.

U.S. ARMY