

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Indian Battalion, Battalion Staff, Color Guard, Indian Raider Team

WHAT: APSU Raider Challenge, Shiloh Battlefield Staff Fieldtrip, Yaipak Disaster Relief, National Raider Championships, MCHS Football Color Guard, MCHS football Homecoming Parade

WHERE: Montgomery Central High, Austin Peay State University, YaiPak Outreach, Fort Knox Kentucky

WHY: Indian Battalion JROTC has been running smoothly in the month of October. The continuation of our Raider season has gone well with our Raiders gaining the experience of the APSU Raider Challenge and the National Raider Championships. The Indian Battalion also sent a group of cadets to YaiPak Outreach, to help with their operations that include assisting people who were effected by severe weather in recent weeks. Five members of the Battalion Staff went to Shilo Battlefield to give a short informational brief. The Indian Battalion Color Guard also presented the colors for two football games and the MCHS Homecoming Parade.

OUTCOME: Our Raider team gained much experience from two highly competitive competitions this month and some of our cadets earned service hours from YaiPak with their time spent toward helping the surrounding areas.

The Indian Battalion has had a successful month and is ready to tackle the rest of the semester
GO CENTRAL!
