

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC Battalion

WHAT: Kirkwood High School Homecoming Parade.

WHEN: 25 Oct 2024

The Kirkwood JROTC Cobra Battalion was invited to participate in Kirkwood's first homecoming parade. This parade has helped cadets establish their confidence in public display and their ability to march in a parade block. This event set a first impression of the Cobra Battalion as a whole to the Kirkwood community.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC

WHAT: Compass Rose

WHEN: 15 Oct 2024

A number of our cadets went on a trip to a compass rose event. We had 15 volunteers who spent their time to help the battalion raise money as well as contribute to our community. Selfless service contributes to both parties. You have the opportunity to give help to the community, but you also gain the joy and knowledge that is gained from service to the community.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC Cadets

WHAT: Cadets in action.

WHEN: 25 Oct 2024

Cadets from the Cobra Battalion have a lot of other extracurricular activities outside of the battalion. During the Homecoming parade we had several cadets participate with the Kirkwood High School Marching Band. During the parade they played the fight song and several drum cadences to show support for our school.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Kirkwood JROTC Staff

WHAT: Preparing the Battalion Commander's car for the homecoming parade.

WHEN: 25 Oct 2024

During a staff call on Friday the Cobra staff members got together and decorated the Battalion Commander's vehicle with a variety of balloons. The vehicle was driven by the battalion's king and queen. This preparation however small was a good bonding method to strengthen the staff members knowledge and comfortability with each other.

