

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: RHS JROTC Cadets

WHAT: CMCSS JROTC History Field Trip

WHEN: 11 October 2024

WHERE: Shiloh National Battlefield, Shiloh, Tennessee

WHY: To emphasize the importance of history and what it can teach us.

OUTCOMES: Cadets applied the values of Teamwork, Leadership, Character, and American Heritage and History during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at:

<https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

SUMMARY: Five Rossvie High School Cadets, led by c/CPT Andrew Goletz and c/CPT Maria Delfin, traveled with cadets from all eight CMCSS JROTC Programs to Shiloh, Tennessee to participate in an educational tour of the Shiloh National Battlefield. The RHS Team of c/CPT Andrew Goletz, c/CPT Maria Delfin, c/CPL Shiloh Kettner, c/CPL Olivia Buehler and c/PFC Peyton Hernandez briefed the assembled cadets at the Death of General Albert Sidney Johnston Monument. They briefed on the life, and death, of General Johnston and how his death impacted the Battle of Shiloh and its long term affects on Confederate Battles for the rest of the Civil War.

