

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Wildcat Battalion Drill / Fitness Team

What: Kirkwood Color Guard / Fitness Competition

When: 2 November 2024

Where: Kirkwood High School

Why: Compete against other schools both in/out of the county to display the outcome of hard work and practice from the colorguard / fitness team practices.

Outcome: The colorguard / fitness teams were given constructive feedback in order to grow and get better as a team for future competitions.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Wildcat Battalion

What: Veterans Day Assembly and Color Guards

When: 8 November 2024

Where: Clarksville High School, Richview Middle School, Barksdale Elementary School

Why: To honor and recognize the service and sacrifice of military veterans at several school assemblies

Outcome: JROTC Cadets were part of several assemblies that allowed the school to show respect and patriotism for those who served the country.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Wildcat Battalion

What: Veterans Day Parade

When: 9 November 2024

Where: Clarksville, TN

Why: Demonstrate respect for Veterans and promote civil responsibility by honoring the military's role in protecting the nation

Outcome: Cadets marched in the parade in order to celebrate and show appreciation for Veterans.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Cadet Scott Armantrout
What: Kiwanis Essay Contest
When: 14 November 2024
Where: Clarksville High School
Why: CHS JROTC students participated in the annual Kiwanis essay contest.
Outcome: Cadet Scott Armantrout won the essay contest for CHS and was recognized by the District Army Instructor COL (R).

U.S. ARMY

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Wildcat Battalion

What: Leadership Adventure Activity

When: 21 November 2024

Where: Clarksville High School

Why: To Build team building, critical thinking, and leadership skills through an engaging and fun activity for the Wildcat Battalion.

Outcome: Cadets were able to learn about their student leaders and exercise teamwork skills to better prepare as citizens.

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

Who: Wildcat Battalion Drill Team
What: Red River Brigade Drill Competition
When: 23 November 2024
Where: Kenwood High School
Why: Compete against District JROTCs and several out of district schools in the biggest drill competition of the year in order to display the hard work, and commitment that the team has put in.
Outcome: The Drill Team participated in Demilitarized and Alternative Arms color guard as well as Unarmed Regulation Platoon. The Alt Arms placed 1st.

