

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Indian Battalion, Battalion Staff, Drill Team, Unarmed Exhibition Team, Color Guard.

WHAT: Kirkwood Color Guard Competition, Veterans Day Ceremonies, Veterans Day Parade, Red River Brigade Drill And Air Rifle Championships, Pro Bull Riding Event

WHERE: Montgomery Central High School, Kirkwood High School, Kenwood High School, Downtown Clarksville, F&M Bank Arena.

WHY: Montgomery Central JROTC has had a successful November by conducting its Veterans Day Ceremony, the Color Guards participation in the MCMS and MCES Veterans Day Ceremonies as well as the unarmed exhibition showing in the Veterans Day Parade. The Indian Battalion also participated in the First Kirkwood Color Guard Competition and the Red River Brigade Drill and Air Rifle Championships. The Color Guard also presented the colors for the Cory Rasch Pro Bull Riding Event.

OUTCOME: The Indian Battalion Drill Team placed First in Demilitarized Color Guard in the Kirkwood Color Guard Competition, and achieved First Place Let 1 Squad, Second Place Alternative Color Guard, Second Place Unarmed Inspection Platoon, Third Place Armed Inspection Platoon, for an Overall Second Place Drill Team in the Red River Brigade Drill Championship. Third Place finish at the Veteran's Day Parade.

The Indian Battalion looks forward to the Red River Brigade JLAB Competition and the remainder of this calendar year as we close out the school semester!

GO CENTRAL!

