Summary: Cadet Captain Asher Marsrow was selected as the RHS Kiwanis Essay winner, and he received his awards from COL (R) Lightner in a small ceremony at Rossvie High School. Cadet Marsrow did his essay on the service of Army Major John Hamric, an Army CBRN Officer, who served multiple deployments in Iraq. In his essay he emphasized Major Hamric's willingness to do his duty regardless of how mundane it was. Major Hamric said while discussing his career that success in life is found by "doing what other people don't want to do". As a result of this achievement, Cadet Marsrow was presented a Certificate of Achievement, The DAI Excellence Arc and the coveted Red River Brigade DAI Coin of Excellence.
