

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Cadet Battalion Commander Autumn Toles

WHAT: Tennessee American Legion Girls State

WHEN: May 24 -May 30, 2026

WHERE: Lipscomb University Campus

WHY: To educate and train high school juniors in the principles and functions of American Government & civic responsibility through a hands-on, immersive simulation

OUTCOMES: Cadet/LTC Toles applied the Values of Leadership and Character during this event.

To learn more information about the Hawk Battalion, scan the QR Code or visit our website at:
<https://thehawkbattalion.wixsite.com/jrotc>

Summary: c/LTC Autumn Toles participated in the 2026 Volunteer Girl's State session. This leadership development experience brought together over 500 rising high school seniors to build a fully functioning mock government from the ground up. Throughout the intensive week, participants campaigned for office, debated original legislation, and elected leadership roles like the 2026 VGS Governor.

Congratulations to Cadet Toles for being awarded with the Best Citizen Medal!

