

UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Indian Battalion, Battalion Staff, Raider Team, Color Guard

WHAT: NEHS Raider Competition, Mt. Olive Cleanup, Point of Pride and Legion of Valor Award, Homecoming Parade and Sabre Guard, APSU Raider Competition

WHERE: Northeast High School, Montgomery Central High School, Mt. Olive National Cemetery, Austin Peay State University

WHY: Northeast High School and Austin Peay State University hosted Raider Challenge competitions to compete for a spot in Raider Nationals. XO and Cadet Major Shelby Epps was awarded the Legion of Valor award for exceptional leadership. Mount Olive cemetery aims to preserve the memory of all who are buried there, mostly African Americans from the 18th and early 19th centuries.

OUTCOME: The Parade was executed properly. The Raider team took home third place at APSU and second at NEHS. Our Mt. Olive Cleanup Initiative went well and the cemetery was cleared of debris. Shelby Epps was awarded the Legion of Valor Award at a ceremony at school.

If it's worth doing, it's worth winning!

GO CENTRAL!

