UNITED STATES ARMY CADET COMMAND

WHO: Indian Battalion, Battalion Staff, Raider Team, Drill Team

What: National Raider Competition, CHS Raider Competition, LET I Drill Competition, Battalion Formation, History Field Trip

WHERE: Fort Knox, Montgomery Central High School, Clarksville High School, Chickamauga & Chattanooga National Military Park

WHY: Clarksville High hosted a raider competition for district schools to compete. USACC hosted the National Raider competition in which schools from all states and territories of the US could compete for a national championship. LET I team competed in drill to gain competition experience and to put their training to use. The senior staff minus presented a brief to their peers and instructors' at the Chickamauga battlefield centered on a specific time of the battle that they were assigned, and the Indian Battalion held it's first Battalion formation of the year to introduce staff and highlight cadet accomplishments.

OUTCOME: The MCHS Raider team placed 5th place team in the nation, 3rd place at the Clarksville Raider Meet, and the MCHS Drill took a 2nd place finish in LET I color guard. The History presentation was a success.

If it's worth doing, it's worth winning!

GO CENTRAL!

U.S. ARMY