The schools listed above will be offering Universal Breakfast to all students. This option is being offered to all students attending these schools FREE OF CHARGE. Universal feeding is free for breakfast only. If parents do not wish for their student to participate, please sign the following and return to the student’s school. If you have any questions, you may contact the cafeteria manager or anyone in the Child Nutrition Department, located at the Board of Education. We look forward to this opportunity to provide the most important meal of the day as we fuel the body so these students will be ready to learn.
