LENGTH OF SCHOOL DAY

Clarksville-Montgomery County School System establishes the length of the school day to meet or exceed the Rules, Regulations, and Minimum Standards of the State Board of Education. The work day for instructional personnel is seven hours and thirty minutes except when deemed necessary by the school administrator. Teachers may be required to remain after school for meetings after the end of the regular work day without additional compensation. Meetings should be conducted no longer than fifty (50) minutes and should not occur more than one time per week unless there is a specified or emergency need.
